Thornton 27 English

1. Let it be apparent to all by these presents that I Robert of Bonyngton knight am held and faithfully am obliged to Roger Westiby of Bonyngton
2. in one hundred marks sterling because of a loan To be paid to the same Roger his heirs or executors or to a certain attorney
3. showing the present writing at York at the feast of St Martin in Winter next in the future after the date of this present without further delay
4. I pledge myself and my heirs and executors to which payment indeed of the said money at the said terms and place as pre-arranged faithfully to be made
5. and all my goods moveable and immoveable wheresoever they will have been found in testimony of which matter I have affixed my seal to these presents
6. Dated at York on the Saturday next after the feast of the Chair of St Peter (feast is 22nd of Feb) in the 40th year of the reign of King Edward the third after the Conquest. (1366)

Thornton 27 A (3012)

In the margin by line 1. Continuatur

1. Dictus tamen Rogerus vult et pro se heredibus et executoribus suis per presentes concedit quod si dictus Rogerus heredes et assignati sui habeant teneant pacifice et
2. gaudeant inperpetuum quattuor tofta et septem bovatas terre cum pertinencijs suis que predictus Rogerus habet ex dono et feoffamento dicti Roberti in villa et territorio de
3. Thorntona in le Strete secundum vim formam et effectum cuiusdam carte feoffamenti quam dictus Robertus prefato Rogero inde fieri fecit prout in eadem
4. carta plenius continetur sine calumpnia vel demanda ac impedimento dicti Roberti vel heredum suorum aut alicuius cuiuscumque eorum nomine ita quod dictus Rogerus
5. nec heredes seu assignati sui a possessione dictorum quatuor toftorum et septem bovatarum terre non eiciantur seu expellantur seu ea vi iuris iudicialiter
6. non omittant ob defectu warantie dicti Roberti vel heredum suorum quod tunc predictum scriptum obligatorum centum marcarum carerat omni robore
7. et virtute et pro nullo habeatur Alioquin in suo robore et in sua virtute stet et permaneat In cuius rei testimonium

This does end here rather abruptly but there is a seal attached. It seems to carry on from 27.

Thornton 27A English

1. However the said Roger wishes both for himself and his heirs and executors and grants that if by these presents the said Roger his heirs and assigns should hold peacefully and
2. enjoy in perpetuity four tofts and seven bovates of land with their appurtenances which the aforesaid Roger has from a gift and feoffment of the said Robert in the town and territory of
3. Thornton in le Strete according to strength form and effect of a certain charter of feoffment which the said Robert thence made to become for the aforementioned Roger as is fully contained
4. in the same charter without challenge or demand or impediment of the said Robert or his heirs or of any whomsoever in their name accordingly the said Roger
5. nor his heirs nor assigns from possession of the said four tofts and the seven bovates of land should not be ejected nor expelled by this strength of right judicially
6. nor they give up because of defect of warranty of the said Robert or of his heirs that then the aforesaid writing of obligations of one hundred marks was lacking with all strength
7. and virtue and should be had for null Besides may it stand and may it persist in its strength and in its virtue In testimony of which matter.
