

Thornton 32 Latin

1. hec indentura testatur quod cum Robertus de Bonyngtona miles par scriptum suum obligatorium teneatur et obligetur Rogero Westiby de Bonyngtona in
2. centum marcis sterlingorum Solvendis apud Eborum ad festum sancti martini in yemo proximum futurum prout in predicto scripto obligatore plenius
3. continetur dictus tamen Rogerus vult et pro se heredibus et executoribus suis par presentes concedit quod si dictus Rogerus heredes et assignati
4. sui habeant teneant pacifice et gaudeant imperpetuum, quatuor tofta et septem bovatas terre cum pertinenciis suis que predictus
5. Rogerus habet ex dono et feoffamento dicti Roberti in villa et territorio de Thorntona in le Strete secundum vim formam et
6. effectum cuiusdam carte feoffamenti quam dictus Robertus prefato Rogero inde fieri fecit prout in eadem carta plenius
7. continetur sine calumpnia vel demanda ac impedimentis dicti Roberti vel heredum suorum aut alterius cuiuscumque eorum nomine ita
8. quod dictus Rogerus nec heredes seu assignati sui a possessione dictorum quatuor toftorum et septem bovatorum terre non eiciantur seu expellantur seu ea
9. vi iure iudicialiter non omittant ob defectu warantie dicti Roberti vel heredum suorum quod tunc predictum scriptum obligatorium centum marcarum
10. careat omni robore et virtute et pro nullo habeatur alioquin in suo robore et in sua virtute stet et permaneat. In cuius rei
11. testimonium partes predicti sigilla sua partibus huius indenture alternatim apposuerunt. Datam apud Eborum die domenica proxima post
12. festum sancti Petri in cathedra Anno regni Regis Edwardi tercij post conquestum quadragesimo

Thornton 32 English

1. This indenture witnesseth that whereas Robert of Bonyngton knight by this written bond is held and is obligated to Roger Westiby of Bonyngton in
2. one hundred marks of sterling paid at York at the next future feast of St. Martin in winter as in the aforesaid written bond is more fully
3. contained, however the said Roger wishes and for himself his heirs and executors he grants by these presents that whether the said Roger his heirs and assigns
4. should have and should hold peacefully joyfully in perpetuity four tofts and seven bovates of land with their appurtenances that the aforesaid
5. Roger has by gift and feoffment of the said Robert in the town and territory of Thornton in le Strete according to the strength form and
6. effect of a certain feoffment charter as in the same charter which the said Robert to the aforementioned Roger thence made to become as in the same charter
7. is contained more fully without challenge or demand and impediments of the said Robert or of his heirs or either of them whomsoever of their name
8. on condition that the said Roger neither his heirs nor his assigns should be driven out nor expelled from the possession of the said four tofts and seven bovates of land or by
9. that strength, right, judgement they do not omit by defect of warrant of the said Robert or of his heirs which then the aforesaid writing of one hundred marks
10. is free from all strength and virtue and on behalf of no-one in other respects be had, it should stand and endure to the end. In testimony of which matter
11. the parties aforesaid affixed their seals to the parts of this indenture by turn. Dated at York on the Sunday next after
12. the feast of St Peter in the chair. In the 40th year of the reign of King Edward the third after the Conquest. (23rd Feb 1366).